The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of DELINEATOR for November is Now Ready!

THE

It is customary in advertising a magazine to uzge the public to buy on account of its literary and artistic features, or its articles of interest and practical utility. The Delineator for November is well filled with all these, but we invite the women of America to buy it for another reason the advertisements which appear in its columns. It carries more high-class advertising then any other monthly magazine in America, and back of every offering of merchandise The Delineator stands with its own guarantee of "satisfaction or money refunded." Five million women will use these advertising columns to determine what to ask their dealer for— to inform themselves of the news of new goods and to experience the pleasure of a "shopping tour" at their own reading table.

Below is a hint of The Delineator store news for the month.
